FOUNDATION.

The establishment of the Capuchin Fathers at Mt. Calvary, in 1856, led to the foundation of a college in which postulants for the Order might be prepared for their vocation. To make this college more generally useful its doors were opened in 1861 to young men aspiring to the holy priesthood among the secular clergy. The attendance during the first years was small and the growth of the institution slow, owing to the poverty of the founders, the limited means of the early Catholic settlers, and all those difficulties and embarrassments with which pioneers must contend. The modest beginning, however, continued to prosper, almost every year witnessing some addition or alteration, until the traditional quadrangle of the monastery was completed and surrounded by group of buildings for the accommodation of students.

The Main building, or College proper, was erected in 1882, and in the same year the Province of St. Joseph of the Capuchin Order was incorporated, pursuant to the Laws of the State of Wisconsin, for the purpose of conducting churches and colleges.

At the repeated suggestion of Archbishop Heiss the Commercial Course was added in 1886, with a view to offer young men preparing for a business career and, for want of Catholic Business Colleges, drifting to non-Catholic schools, a thorough Catholic education.

In 1896 the Seventh Class was added to complete the Philosophical Course.

Last year a Preparatory Class was introduced in the curriculum, that the student may be the better prepared to take up the studies of the Classical Course.

Thus the Institution now includes a Preparatory, Commercial, Classical and Philosophical Department, all well equipped to do efficient work.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

Direction.—St. Lawrence College stands under the direction of the Capuchin Fathers of the Province of St Joseph, whose Provincial is ex-officio President of the College and whose Definitors are its Trustees.

Name.—Its patron and model is St Lawrence, an illustrious Saint of the Order of Capuchins. Born at Brundusium, Italy, July 22, 1559, he entered the newly founded Order of Capuchins at the age of 16. In his earliest youth he had exhibited a wonderful development of the faculties of his mind and heart, and in his higher studies at Padua he excelled above all his competitors in intellectual penetration, retentive memory, gentle disposition and untiring diligence. His knowledge of Latin, Greek, Hebrew, Chaldaic, German, Bohemian, French and Spanish were considered miraculous His facility in dealing with the most intricate philosophical and theological questions, together with oratorical powers and profound piety, caused him to be appointed Lector of the Venetian Province of the Order when only 22 years of age. He soon after became Guardian, in 1587; Provincial, in 1593; Definitor General, in 1596; Papal Legate to Germany, in 1599; the inspiring director of the Christian forces against the Turks, in 1601; General of the Order, in 1602; Papal Envoy to Germany, in 1606; to Bavaria, in 1609; to Spain, in 1619. He died July 22, 1619, was beatified in 1783, and canonized by Leo XIII, December 8, 1881.

Object.—The aim of this institution is to prepare young men for the holy priesthood, to give the Catholic youth who does not aspire to the holy priesthood a solid classical education and moral training, or to qualify him, in a thorough and practical Business Course, for lucrative positions in the commercial world.

Location.—St. Lawrence College enjoys a very healthful location, 600 ft. above Lake Michigan, and 400 ft. above Lake Winnebago, only a few miles distant. It is sufficiently elevated to enjoy a bracing atmosphere, at the same time sufficiently remote from the chilling vapors of the lake. In its elevated location it commands a charming view of one of the most fertile and best cultivated sections of Wisconsin. The surrounding grounds have been attractively improved to make Mt. Calvary a secluded and pleasant retreat for the lover of study.

Accessibility.—Mt. Calvary is a small village 12 miles east of Fond du Lac and one mile and a half from Calvary, a station on the Fond du Lac and Sheboygan branch of the Chicago and Northwestern R. R. Connections are made at Fond du Lac with the main line of the C. & N. W., the C., M. & St. P. and the Wisconsin Central roads, at Plymouth with the Milwaukee Northern, at Sheboygan with the Lake Shore Line. Trains leave Fond du Lac at 9:15 a. m., 1:45 p. m. (Accommodation) and 5-15 p. m., Sheboygan at 6:30 a. m. (Accommodation) 8:00 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. Best connections are made by way of Fond du Lac.

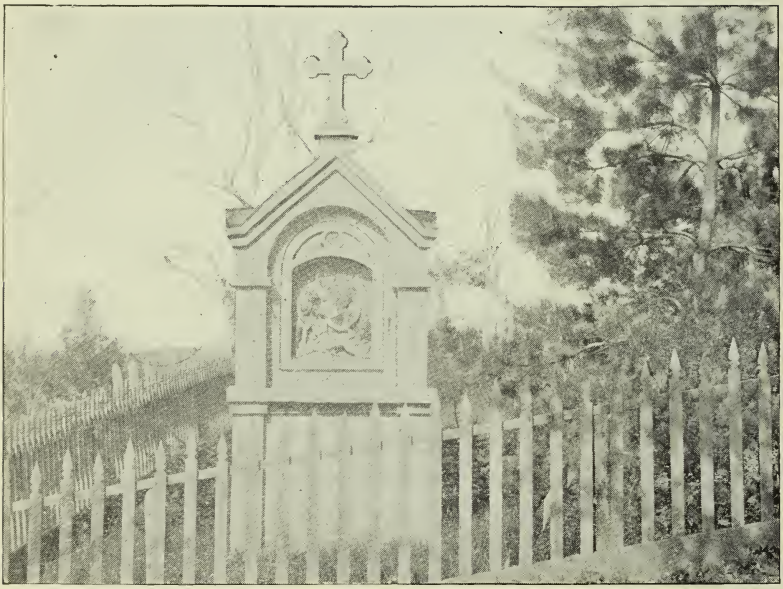
The Buildings.—The church with the monastery are brick structures forming a large quadrangle. In the south wing of the latter are the kitchen and refectory for the students. The main building of the College is a massive edifice with a basement and four stories, containing study halls, dormitories, recitation rooms, recreation rooms, etc. St. Joseph's Hall, contains a spacious dormitory, several rooms for piano practice and rehearsals, as well as a trunk room. St. Thomas Hall is devoted to literary assemblies, dramatical and musical entertainments and gymnastic exercises. A beautiful chapel has been erected at great cost for the exclusive use of the students. It is furnished with artistic altars, numerous statues and tasty decorations.

Methods of Teaching.—The success of our educational work is secured by the uniformity of method in the teaching of all the instructors, who in regular conferences deliberate on the methods most natural, thorough and effective for the advancement of the student in the various branches of study, and faithfully adhere to the adopted methods of the institution.

Discipline.— For the maintenance of order reasonably strict regulations are necessary. The students are under the supervision of the Rev. Fr. Prefect, or his assistants; but obedience to the rules is enforced more by moral motives than severe methods. The Rector reserves the right to dismiss any student, who, after repeated admonition, shows a character so doubtful as to require extraordinary supervision.

Degrees.—This institution, by virtue of the charter of the Province of St. Joseph of the Capuchin Order, is empowered "to confer such degrees and grant such diplomas as are usually conferred by similar institutions" Hence at the end of the Commercial Course a Diploma of its satisfactory completion is awarded to graduates in this department. On completion of the Classical Course the degree of A. B. is conferred upon those who on examination are found worthy of that distinction. The degree of A. M. can be obtained by devoting a second year to the study of philosophy in the institution, or two years to a learned profession.



ONE OF THE STATIONS.

SPECIAL DIRECTIONS.

PARENTS and Guardians, for obvious reasons, are earnestly requested to send their sons or wards at the beginning of September. Although students may enter at any time, none will be admitted for a shorter period than one term of five months.

Satisfactory testimonials of good conduct will be required from those who come from other institutions.

Candidates for admission to advanced classes must pass an examination, after which they will be assigned to the class for which they are found qualified.

Students who receive permission to leave the Institution for brief visits, will report to the Rector before leaving and immediately after their return.

When a student takes sick he will be carefully nursed, and should his disease prove dangerous, parents and guardians will receive timely notice The College will defray expenses for medical attendance to the amount of $5 00 only.

All necessary books, stationery, etc , can be bought at the College at current prices.

No advances will be made by the College for clothing, pocket money, fares or other expenditure, unless a sufficient sum has been deposited.

Express charges on parcels sent to students must be prepaid. Eatables should not be sent to students except during the Christmas holidays.

All accounts must be settled before a student leaves the Institution.

Should a student enter after the beginning, or leave before the end of a term, no deduction will be made for less than a month.

Students should not be called home during the term except for the most urgent reasons.

Seraphic Scholasticate.

THE Seraphic Scholasticate offers especial advantages to students desiring to become members of the Capuchin Community and to serve God more disinterestedly as priests in a religious Order.

The Scholastics have private rooms in the monastery. There they also have their own refectory and recreation hall. They wear a light habit of brown cloth and take part in several of the religious exercises of the community, which enables them to observe, and become familiar with, the usages and practices of religious life before assuming any of its responsibilities. They are under the special guidance of a spiritual director, and visit the College only to attend the classes of the regular classical course.

Before Students are admitted into the Scholasticate they must have been pupils of St. Lawrence College for at least one year, and must have completed the second Latin Class.

SOCIETIES.

I. Third Order of St. Francis.

THE Third Order of St. Francis presents the best rule of conduct in the service of God and the work of salvation in every walk of life and under the most varied circumstances. Whosoever lives according to the letter and spirit of this holy rule is preserved from danger to his eternal salvation, receives numerous graces and inspirations for his sanctification, and will, in sentiment and action, be a true servant of God. Leo XIII, himself a Tertiary, has brought the merits of the Third Order before the world in an admirable encyclical as the remedy for the evils of our times, so nearly resembling the times for which that true reformer, St. Francis, instituted this Order. His urgent appeal to the bishops of the world to propagate the Third Order, has made it popular with cardinals, bishops and priests. Enrollment in the Third Order is therefore encouraged among the students. Applicants must be 16 years old. The members have monthly meetings and devotion in the college chapel.

GENERAL PROSPECTUS OF STUDIES.

The College comprises a Preparatory, Classical, Philosophical and Business Course.

The Preparatory Course is arranged for those students who are not far enough advanced to enter one of the higher courses.

The Classical Course covers a period of six years and embraces the study of Latin, Greek, English, German, French, Grammer, Composition, Rhetoric, Literature, History, Geography, the elements of Botany, Geology, Zoology, Physics and Astronomy.

The Philosophical Course extends over two years. In the first year the Classics are completed with the Sixth Latin Class. Logic, General Metaphysics, Natural Theology, Ethics, History of Philosophy, Hermeneutics, Church History, one of the Natural Sciences and Hebrew.

The Commercial Course may be completed in two years, or in a longer or shorter period according to the abilities or previous acquirements of the student. The branches taught are: Bookkeeping and Business Routine, Penmanship, English Grammar and Composition, German, Commercial Arithmetic, Commercial Correspondence, Commercial Law, Geography, United States History, Civil Government, Typewriting, Phonography.

Christian Doctrine receives the most careful attention, as there can be no real education or effective moral training without it. This instruction is based upon Catechism and Bible History in the first and second classes, upon the exposition of the ecclesiastical year in the third year, and upon the evidences of the Catholic Religion in the fourth and fifth and the History of the Church in the Philosophical Course.

Latin is taught in all grades of the Classical Course. Paramount attention is paid to Precepts and Practice and the memorizing of Paradigms. No amount of translation of the prose and poetical Models is specified, but much time is devoted to the analysis and remodeling of the selections from classical authors. Translations from German or English into Latin, several times a week, in all the grades, afford the student ample opportunity to appropriate the words and phrases upon which he has been drilled in reading the Models. Latin is the medium of instruction and recitation in Philosophy and Ethics.

Greek is taken up in the second year and continued during five years on the same plan as the Latin. Three hours being devoted to it every week.

English is taught in all its phases : Penmanship, Spelling, Grammar, Composition, Rhetoric and Literature. Although the students are almost exclusively of German descent, the study of the English Language is by no means neglected, but receives all the attention due to its prime importance as the language of our country. Three times a week.

German is obligatory in all Courses in view of its essential value as an accomplishment and its positive benefit in active business life. The study of German includes Penmanship, Etymology, Syntax, Composition, Rhetoric, Poetry and Literature. A special feature of the institution is that several important branches are taught in German, and that the students make extensive use of German in their conversations. Prayers and exhortations, as well as table reading, are alternately German and English. Three hours a week.

French is optional for students of the third year and higher Classes. On account of the literary and practical value of the French Language its study is recommended. Two hours a week.

Hebrew is obligatory in the Philosophical Course. Two hours a week.

Arithmetic is one of the foremost branches in the first and second year classes, Algebra in the third and fourth, Geometry in the fourth and fifth, Trigonometry in the sixth. Three hours a week.

History is taken up in the first class. Bible History and United States History furnishing the texts for the first and second classes. Universal History in the third, fourth and fifth, Church History in Philosophy. Mythology is treated with the Latin and Greek Classics. Two hours a week.

Geography is treated as supplementary to History and as a prolific source of culture in the first and second classes. Two hours a week.

Sciences have been taught this year in the departments of Geology, Astronomy and Physics.

Drawing may be taken once a week, to acquire facility in the use of pencil and crayon in freehand sketching of landscape, portrait and architectural designs. Advanced students receive instruction in water-color and oil painting free of charge except for materials.

The Commercial Course is arranged to agree as much as practical with the Classical Course, to enable students of the former to attend the classes of the latter in some branches.

CHRONICLE.

Sept. 3.—Striking proof that the Laurentianum is an Alma Mater, is offered by the fact 68 students are already assembled in its halls.

Sept. 4.—At 8:00 p. m. the Rector's address in the Chapel. The College Rules read.

Sept. 5 —Formal Opening of the Academic Year 1901-2. At 6:00 Solemn Mass. Fr. Rector, celebrant, Fr. Prefect, Deacon; Fr. Charles, Subdeacon. Veni Creator. Benediction. At 8:00 a. m. Classes resumed.

Sept. 8.—The St. Thomas Literary Society improvised a gleeful program for the evening, to show the tyros some of the bright sides of college life. The Band had not shared the usual fate of College bands; nearly all the old members were on the stand.

Sept. 14.—Titular Feast of the parish. Holiday.

Sept. 19.—The Laurentianum, in sympathy with the universal grief caused by the treacherous assassination of President McKinley, held solemn services for the welfare of our country.

Oct. 4. — Feast of St. Francis. Patronal Feast of the Order. Holiday.

Oct. 5. — All Souls' Day of the Order. Solemn Requiem for all deceased professors and benefactors of St. Lawrence College.

Nov. 2.— All Souls' Day of the Church. Before the Solemn Requiem Fr. Rector read the Necrology of the professors and students who have died at the Laurentianum. In the afternoon there was a procession to the cemetery with appropriate services at the graves of deceased professors and students.

Nov. 5.— A number of Alumni arrived with the evening train. A few of them had intended to pay the Laurentianum a visit after a long absence and wishing to see as many as possible of their former friends they had sent out invitations to those whom they remembered best to meet them in the college halls. Although this was short notice, seventeen Rev. Alumni appeared, and many others send letters of regret of being unable to make the necessary arrangements in time. So eager were the assembled Alumni for the welfare of the Laurentianum that they met the same evening for a long session, in which the articles of a constitution for an Alumni Association were drafted to be discussed and acted upon on the morrow.

Nov. 6.—At 6:00 Rev. Joachim Baker, of Alexandria, Ind., chanted the High Mass. Rev. John Berg, of Remington, Ind., assisted him as Deacon, Rev. John Schiffer of Chicago, as Subdeacon. Rev. Thomas Jansen, of Michigan City, Ind, acted as Master of Ceremonies. The College Choir very creditably came up to the occasion At 9:15 a. m., meeting of the committee on Constitution. At 10:00, a. m., general meeting of the Alumni. Adoption of a Constitution. Election of Officers.

Besides those already named the following Alumni were present: Rev. Fr. Kleser, Beaver Dam, Wis , Rev. Seb. Bernard, Lomira, Wis., Rev. Fr. Jansen, Frankfort, Ind., Rev. J. P. Haubrich, Browns, Ia., Rev. Christ Schmitt, St. Joseph, Wis., Rev. B. Biegel, Elwood, Ind., Rev. Ed. Schiefen, Kansasville, Wis., Rev. Alois Brunner, Kaukauna, Wis., Rev. P. Delles, Kohler, Wis., Rev. Ed. Boccard, Columbia City, Ind. Rev. Geo. Horstmann, Reynolds, Ind., Rev. Herm. Huitink, Jericho, Wis. The Very Rev. Bonaventure Frey, one of the founders of the Laurentianum, was present to welcome the Rev. Guests.

In the evening the students entertained the visitors with the following:

PROGRAM.

1. Overture "Idealistic"..... College Band.
2. Welcome Speech ..... Mr Jos. Zeyen.
3. Overture "Mozart"..... by Rev. P. Carolus and Prof. C. Schaefer.
4. Sports on a Lark (Farce) .....J. Willitzer, E. Schimberg, M. Jaekels.

11. Der Goldonkel (Duet)..... .....Jos. Zeyen and Jul Skrzypinski.
12. Frueh Morgens wenn die Haehne kraehn..... ..... Choir.
13. Ad libitum..... .....College Band.

The toasts of the Rev. Alumni were the most prominent and best relished feature of the program.

Nov. 7.—7:30 Solemn Requiem for the deceased Alumni of the Laurentianum. Rev. J. Berg, celebrant; Rev. B Biegel, Deacon; Rev. G. Horstman, Subdeacon.

The Alumni left with the morning train. Many and cordial were the assurances of the happy hours they had spent in the cherished haunts of their college days, and hearty was the Godspeed wished them by the student at their departure.

Nov. 28.—Thanksgiving Day. Solemn Mass of Thanksgiving. The St. Thomas Literary Society had assumed the task of preparing a program. Our best dramatic talents had graduated and left the society in a stunted condition. Expectation, therefore, did not run high. But let it be said to the credit of the actors that they have ably sustained the laurels won by their predecessors.

Dec. 20.—Before separating for the Christmas vacation the Professors and Students assembled in St. Thomas Hall to exchange Christmas greetings and give expression to their mutual good wishes The St. Lawrence Junior Literary Society arranged the program, which they rendered with well merited applause.

Dec. 23.—

Rev. Fr. Camillus Gnad, O. M. Cap.,

after a protracted illness was called to his eternal reward at 3:30, a. m.

He had been born at Merscheid, Germany, on May 16, 1858. His parents having come to this country when he was yet a mere child, he received his early education in the Mater Dolorosa Parochial School in New York City. Nov. 22, 1870 he entered St. Lawrence College. He was invested in the Capuchin Order Feb. 13, 1874 and ordained May 29, 1881. He was soon after assigned to St. Lawrence College, were he remained until he was appointed Master of Novices in 1885. He returned to the College in 1891 and with a short interruption continued his connection with it until his death. He was exceedingly fond of College work When he felt that he was beyond recovery and his dissolution fast approaching, he caused himself to be carried to the window that he might once more cast his dying eyes upon the institution he had loved so dearly and to which he had consecrated the energies of his best years. May God reward him for his life of toil and sacrifice.

R. I. P.

Dec. 25 —Burial of Fr. Camillus. The students remaining at College during the holidays attended and joined the procession to the little Convent Cemetery.
